

Briscola

La partita a briscola

What does `briscola` mean?

Briscola is a trick taking card game - that is, the object of the game is to take cards which gives you (or your team) a high score. It is played with a 40 card deck. It is often played with Italian cards, which have suits of coins, cups, batons and swords, but you may play using a standard card deck, just by removing the Jokers, eights, nines and tens. Briscola may be played with two, three, four or six players
